THANK YOU

We wish to thank all who helped in preparing our church for Easter. Beginning with Lent right through to Holy Saturday evening. Much work was required, and much work was given. We also thank our choir for the inspirational music. God has blessed our parish with many helping hands.

EASTER SUNDAY:
THE SOLEMNITY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

The celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ continues into Easter Sunday morning. Easter Sunday marks the end of the Triduum and is the first day of the Easter Octave. The great Fifty Days begin. Forty days of fast yield to fifty days of feast.

TODAYS READINGS (Year C)

First Reading: Peter's testimony underscores the power of the Holy Spirit at work in Jesus' earthly ministry and to God's power in raising Jesus from the dead. Peter and other chosen disciples were blessed with encounters with the risen Christ that became the basis for their witness to the gift of salvation that will come, not to a select few, but to all who will believe in him.

Responsorial Psalm: On this Easter day, the Church proclaims the love of God manifested in the Resurrection of the one rejected by humankind. God has established Christ as the cornerstone of the Church's salvation.

Second Reading: Paul admonishes the Colossians to celebrate and honor the gift of new life in Christ by turning their gaze from the things of earth to those of heaven. We attend to Christ who sits in glory at God's right hand, for he is our life and will share his glory with us.

Gospel: As Peter and the beloved disciples peer into the empty tomb, the sparse evidence of folded burial clothes leads the beloved to resurrection faith. Peering into a space that others perceive to be empty and void of meaning or possibility, the beloved perceives new life. As believers, Christians continually peer into places that appear to be empty and void of life and possibility; yet, the Holy Spirit's prompting enables faithful disciples to discern even in the sparsest of evidence wellsprings of hope for new life.

ALLELUIA!
HE IS RISEN

THIS WEEK

Monday in the Octave of Easter, April 5

The Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory!
 Come, let us adore him, alleluia!

Tuesday in the Octave of Easter, April 6

Let us hope in God and praise him still, our savior and our God, alleluia!

Wednesday in the Octave of Easter, April 7

Christ is the true Lamb, who takes away the sins of the world: come, let us adore, alleluia!

Thursday in the Octave of Easter, April 8

The glorious company of apostles praises the Lord:
 come, let us worship! Alleluia!

Friday in the Octave of Easter, April 9

All families of the nations worship before the Lord:
 come, let us adore, alleluia!

Saturday in the Octave of Easter, April 10

Rejoice in the Lord! Again I say rejoice! Alleluia!

(Magnificat)

“Those who have come
 Into genuine contact
 With Christ
 Cannot keep Him for Themselves, they Must proclaim him.”

Pope John Paul II
